

INSURANCE RELEASE FORM

The undersigned acknowledges that he/she has read and understands the following terms as set forth herein on behalf on him/herself, or in the case of a minor, for the minor:

I, _____, on behalf of myself or as parent or guardian of _____, a minor, hereby take full responsibility for and am willing to have the above mentioned persons engage in horseback riding activities, including, but not limited to, lessons, prepurchase tryouts of sales horses, or trail rides in the course of equestrian instruction or post-instruction recreation. I understand that while Bray's Training Center, Inc (hereinafter referred to as BTC) , its agents and employees, do everything possible to ensure the safety of both human and equine, due to the unpredictable nature of equines, any activity may result in accidental injury, including permanent disablement, disfigurement or death. I hereby release BTC, its agents, employees and owners from any and all claims, demands, actions, damages, losses, judgments, and executions which I have ever had or may have or claim to have in the future against BTC, its agents, employees and owners for all personal injuries, known or unknown, and injuries to property, real or personal, caused by or arising out of the use of such property or participation in said equine activities. I hereby agree to indemnify BTC, its agents, employees or owners, for all damages, liabilities, losses, judgments and executions which may be sustained as a result of any injury to the named participant, horse, or any injury to another caused directly or indirectly by the above named participant. I understand that I am responsible for carrying my own health, life and liability insurance to cover any accident the above named person may have. I understand I am responsible for protective headgear (in the event participant is a minor, protective headgear is required) and ride at my own risk.

Signage required by Arkansas Code is posted at BTC and reads: WARNING: Under Arkansas law, an equine activity sponsor is not liable for an injury to, or death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities. "Inherent risk" means a condition integral to an equine activity including, but not limited to: the propensity of equines to behave in ways that may result in injury or death to persons on or around the equine; the unpredictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movements, unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals; surface or subsurface conditions; the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to the injury, loss or death of the participant or another person, including, but not limited to, failing to maintain control over an equine or failing to act within the ability of the participant.
